Master’s program information (provided by the program)

Then we have a screenshot to show the programs where to submit their info, and the information format. The information includes:

- Name of any outside accreditation body (other than WASC)
- Expected program duration
- Total units
- Admission requirements: standardized tests, work experience, target student population
- Additional requirements: Full-time/Part-time, internship, capstone project, thesis, comprehensive exam, funding availability
- Learning Objectives
- Student Learning Experience Evaluation
- Outcomes (student success measures)
- Average starting salary, and source of salary information
- Average tuition & fees for entire program
- Number of faculty teaching: RTPC, tenure-track, and adjunct; full-time and part-time
- Name of any 3rd-party partners
- Placement information for the most recent graduating class, including organization name, organization type and position description.